

WHICH CAME FIRST?

Researchers have found that a protein called ovocledidin-17 is the "essential ingredient in the formation of the egg [and] can only be produced inside a chicken." This means . . .

the Chicken came first!