

Job Interviewing

SOME ADVICE

- Dress appropriately.
 - Make sure you're clean and well groomed.
 - Answer all questions honestly and directly, especially about your strengths and weaknesses.
 - When possible and appropriate, include specific examples .
 - Don't force humor; let it arise naturally from the discussion.
 - Don't be afraid to respond with "I don't know."
 - Be businesslike, but be yourself.
-
- A cartoon illustration of a woman with grey hair, wearing a red top, sitting at a desk. She has a surprised or excited expression on her face. On the desk in front of her is a laptop and a pen. The background is a light green and yellow gradient.