

Economic Wealth

is a "symphony of human action ... created by [human minds], choosing to study, to practice, and to be so immersed and absorbed in work that they create real value in the world."

— Jack Wheeler